

Books schedule for 2023 Page Turners, U3A Benalla

First Tuesday of each month

Book	Month
The Night Tide , Di Morrissey. Tragic mystery unfolds secrets and threats. Set in Sydney Note the change of book	January 3rd
Zookeepers War , Stephen Conte. Keepers help Jews escape the Nazis and struggle to keep their animals alive	February 7th
Demon Copperhead . Barbara Kingsolver. Reimagining of Dicken's "David Copperfield" set in USA Appalachians.	March 7th
Edge of the Solid World .Daniel Davis Wood. Two acts of tragedy contrasted: one in the Alps the other in Sydney	April 4th
Stone Sky Gold Mountain , Mirandi Riwoe. Searching look at migrants on the Victorian goldfield in C19th .Historical fiction.	May 2nd
One Last Secret , Adele Parkes. Mystery set in castle in France where Dora ,an escort, stays on as a favour.	June 6th
Horse . Geraldine Brooks. 2 historians reconstruct the stories about the most famous USA racehorse. A dark comedy.	July 4th
Black Cake , Charmaine Wilkerson. A family saga of a matriarch's journey through life, originally from the Caribbean.	August 1st
Lessons in Chemistry , Bonnie Garmus. California, 1960s. A scientist and single mum becomes a TV star.	September 5th
Camille's Bread , Andrea Lohrey. Sydney steamy summer in terrace house where mother's new partner tries to win over young daughter Camille.	October 3rd
To Be decided	November 7th
Some Other options
Wake , Shelley Burr

Australian bush mystery about disappearances and past events affecting the current times.
Coming of Age in the War on Terror, Abdel-Fattah
Little Wartime Library, Thompson
Boys from Biloxi, Grisham
Zelda., Milford

Participants in this book group must find their own copies of books on the reading list from

- The library, [free]
- Borrowbox {Library e-books} [free]
- Purchase an e-book copy from Amazon, Readings etc. [$10 – $15]
- Second hand copies on book sites. As these are quite recent books there may not be many copies available on these sites yet.
- Buy hard copy. This option is much more expensive than the above suggestions

Any queries to Convenor – Meg Dillon. Ph 57626558.