

'A Taste of Art'

Carol Perry 03 5762 2373
0438 111 057

Fortnightly on Wednesdays 1:30 pm to 4:00 pm

Broken River Painters, Barc Hut 11

Benalla's Broken River Painters group is offering this course to U3A members interested in taking up or renewing their interest in drawing and painting. The course will operate as an art workshop in a relaxed atmosphere with mentoring and support from artists of the Broken River Painters. No experience is necessary, however more experienced artists are welcome to enrol. No materials or equipment are required, but feel free to bring along pencils, charcoal, paints and brushes for watercolour, oils, acrylics and pastels. Members are welcome to join the Broken River Painters group and exhibit with their members in art shows and markets in the north east as well as in the Benalla Hospital.

Art Appreciation

Neville Gibb 0428 858 688

1st Monday 10:00 am to 11:00 am

Benalla Art Gallery

Join Benalla Art Gallery staff and other members of the community on the first Monday of every month at 10 am for an eclectic and ever-changing curated program of talks and tours. See the latest exhibitions and listen to talks by guest artists and curators. Stay on after the session for a coffee in the Gallery Cafe and catch up with other members of the Art Appreciation group.

'As Time Goes By' - Memoir Writing

Bev Lee 0478 607 838

3rd Monday 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm

U3A Room 1

'As Time Goes By' provides an outlet and support for members keen to write about their lives and tell stories their families may not get around to asking them about. A memoir is a slice from a person's life which focuses on a particular theme or lesson or flavour of experience, an aspect of life that is most unusual or fascinating. Each month class members share stories responding to set 500 Words themed writing topics. New members are invited to share a 500-word story at the first meeting, either 'I Was There', Have you experienced a significant news, historical or cultural event first-hand? , or 'New in Town', Have you ever been the new person in town? However, it's fine to pass and enjoy the stories shared by others. Please note that 'As Time Goes By' does not include writing skills sessions or cover writing a detailed, chronological autobiography.

Australian History

Terry Case 0427 621 700

2nd & 4th Friday 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm

U3A Room 1

We'll range from local history through the intrusion of new settlers on original inhabitants' land, examine colonial office control of this British outpost and the myth of terra nullius. We'll look at gold and democracy but balance it with some awkward truths. Today we are still part of the struggle to share power and give all a voice.

Be Connected - Managing Money Online

Jenny Sawyer 0409 545 182
Robyn Lukey 0403 164 931

2nd & 3rd Monday 11:30 am to 12:30 am

U3A Room 1

Not sure about managing money online? This course uses Be Connected Modules to explore banking online - paying bills, setting up a banking app, using the bank website, checking balances and statements and transferring money. We'll also look at PayPal and making online purchases. Be Connected - Managing Money Online will run for one Semester: Feb - June.

Birdwatching

Kathy Costello 03 5762 5755
0447 625 755

2nd Thursday 9:30 am to 12:00 noon
March, April, May

Meet at Seniors Carpark

If you would like to know more about birds in the Benalla district and would appreciate help in identifying birds, this group could be for you. The program involves mainly morning walks in local habitats rich in a range of bird life such as Reef Hills, Winton Wetland and Benalla Lake. There may also be an all-day outing to a more distant location. Bring along a pair of binoculars to gain more value and enjoyment from this activity.

Brain Games

Elspeth Maconachie 0418 621 764

4th Tuesday 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm
U3A Room 1

It is well established that new skills can help build brain pathways with benefits for memory, confidence, happiness and even falls prevention. Brain Games will offer a variety of entertaining and informative ways to challenge, inform and exercise your brain. Thus, we might solve word, number, shape, picture or logic puzzles, take part in a quiz, brainstorm solutions to a dilemma, draw a picture or maybe even learn to juggle! We may, at times, read or view material on topics such as ..(dementia, brain repair...etc), gender differences, optimism & pessimism, lateral thinking and creativity.

Bushwalking - Easywalks

Julie McNeill 0407 823 031

1st Wednesday 9:30 - All Day from March
Meet at Seniors Carpark

This is a group for those who have enjoyed bushwalking in the past and for anyone interested in exploring the amazing tracks, trails and lookouts within about an hour's drive of Benalla. Meeting monthly, the day will include a walk of about 8km, a picnic or cafe lunch and very often include sites of historical or botanical interest. In the past twelve months trips have included an Italian ossuary, one of Sir John Monash's earliest bridges, and some great wildflower photography on the rocky ledges of Mt Pilot.

Participants should be able to walk at a reasonable pace on well defined tracks, without a lot of climbing. Sturdy shoes are essential! You will also need to carry a small daypack with lunch, drinks etc as needed.

Car sharing is usually available with a small cost.

Meeting times are usually at 9.30am, with the convenor notified of attendance three days prior.

While Covid and adverse weather have tested us to our limits, we have managed many memorable walks-and lots of talking!

Cards '500'

Doug Smith 0417 527 171

3rd & 5th Wednesday 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm
U3A Room 1

The card game of 500 is a simple social game to play with groups of 4 players or more. Playing cards is a fun way of enjoying other's company without physical exertion. Our U3a group of card players has many laughs and fun at our sessions with easy to understand rules. Players do not have to have had previous experience as you will be taught how to play by others present. We are a friendly and welcoming group where the focus is having fun in a mild competitive environment. There is no gambling or money involved. The game is flexible and can be configured to accommodate any number of participants. This allows for flexibility if you cannot come along on a regular basis.

Chat 'n' Chew

Lorraine Knox 03 5762 1531

0427 376 991

3rd Friday 11:45 am to 1:45 pm
Varied venues

This group meets once a month at one of Benalla's many eateries for good nosh and a natter. A very popular activity. All U3A members welcome. For catering purposes attendees are required to notify Lorraine by the Tuesday prior to each of these Fridays. New members are welcome. For further information contact Lorraine.

Coin Collectors

Doug Smith 0417 527 171

4th Monday 1:30 pm to 3:30 pm
U3A Room 1

People over the years have bags, boxes, or tins of old coins of pre decimal, decimal and foreign currency. If this is an interest or hobby of yours and you would like to discuss the significance of coins and notes with different designs that commemorate the events and people that create a history of Australia and other countries, consider joining our Coin Collectors group. Meet others who have been putting coins aside and have not yet sorted or catalogued their collection. Discuss, view and swap coins to complete various sets. We aim to get more enjoyment from our collections, educate ourselves and others and look forward to seeing your coins and sharing stories.

Collectors

Dorothy Webber 0412 263 071

1st Monday 10:00 am to 12:00 noon
U3A Room 1

Do you enjoy 'The Collectors' and 'Bargain Hunt' on TV? Have you a collection or the beginnings of one? Collectors is for people who enjoy collecting and seeing the collections of others. Sessions take the form of show and tell with participants bringing along an item or a collection to share with others in the group. Items shown range from the quirky to the beautiful. They may be inherited, be valuable antiques or items purchased from the Op Shop but which you enjoy. It is hoped to have a guest speaker for one session to help us develop skills in identifying and valuing our purchases. Please bring along to the first session one or two of your favourite items and be prepared to show and tell.

Community Singing

Margaret Jenkins 03 5762 6944

4th Thursday 10:00 am to 11:30 am
Cooinda Hub

Community Singing will be conducted by Brian Greed from the piano using a variety of song books suitable for each meeting. Members of U3A as well as members of Singing for Fun are invited to attend. Each session will have a relaxed atmosphere and will run for an hour and a quarter with a break for morning tea.

Creative Writing

Joy Shirley 0417 065 351

2nd Monday 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm (inc P.Hols)
U3A Room 1

Have you ever thought of writing a short story, a novel, entering a writing competition? Or perhaps you just love to write stories. Creative Writing is a 'guided self-help' creative writing session. The class provides the incentive to write and to receive feedback from like-minded 'creative writers'.

Each month we have a writing prompt, or a selection of prompts, to provide a starting point. This can be a starting sentence, a topic, or perhaps a writing challenge. The stories written during the month are shared with the class for feedback. When meeting together, each session will start with a short writing or word challenge, followed by sharing of the feedback and, where time allows, discussion of writing hints and lessons.

Demystifying Psychology

Jane Rushworth 0437 621 575

SEMESTER 2

A five-session light-hearted course introducing psychology in everyday life and some of the theories that attempt to explain how and why we do things. The course will include personality types and preferred coping styles; theories and practices applied to drug treatment, raising children, family violence, and other topics as suggested by participants. The course will also include social psychology, the concepts of obedience, power, group dynamics and states of mind. We'll then discuss how we experience the various theories as they play out in daily life.

Demystifying Psychology Discussion Group

Jane Rushworth 0437 621 575

3rd Thursday 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm
North Eastern Hotel

An open discussion group with a psychological focus looking at current events. If you are interested in various interpretations of relationships of all kinds, you are welcome and can expect to have fun. No preparation required.

Enjoying the Internet

Dawn Stephens 0418 552 932

3rd Tuesday 10:00 am to 12:00 noon
U3A Room 1

A course for members keen to venture beyond the basics to find out more about what the internet can offer! Targeting members already comfortable with tasks such as online subscriptions, emailing with photo attachments and managing files, there's an enormous range of possible content to explore. Members will be encouraged to contribute topics, to develop the skills covered in class during the month, and to report back during a 'Pains and Gains' segment at the following class. 'Enjoying the Internet' will focus on supporting PC and laptop users; however, users of other devices are also welcome.

Executive Meeting

Margaret Jenkins 03 5762 6944

2nd Thursday 1:30 pm to 3:30 pm
U3A Room 1

U3A Benalla Monthly Executive Committee Meeting.

Exercises for Fun

Helen Jeffree 0490 092 267

Mondays 9:30 am to 11:30 am
Seniors Auditorium

Research shows that there are many benefits of exercising with a group. Exercise can reduce the risk of falls and can increase our mobility, while maintaining our strength. It can improve our mood too. Come along and join our Exercise group in the Seniors hall, and have fun.

Exploring the Universe

Bev Morton 03 5764 1245

3rd Tuesday 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm
U3A Room 1

At "Exploring the Universe" we journey far beyond our solar system with material from scientists of International Space Agencies who share their discoveries through text and audio visual content that is easily understood.

A telescope is like a time machine. The Hubble Space Telescope and advanced technologies gave us a whole new perspective of the Universe. Now the new James Webb Space Telescope has the power to see even further back in time to the birth of the first stars and planets! Will the James Webb unravel the mysteries of the elusive dark energy and the expansion of the Universe?

Why not join us to enjoy the wonders of the Cosmos. You don't have to be a scientist! We are all learning together. The only requirement is an enquiring mind.

Family Research

Bev Lee 0478 607 838

Barry O'Connor 0407 266 688

Jane Rushworth 0437 621 575

4th Thursday 1:00 pm to 4:00 pm
U3A Room 1

Family Research is a guided self-help group for members who are already working on their family tree. Sessions commence with report backs on 'pains and gains' during research over the previous month accompanied by shared problem solving and lots of encouragement and ideas for next steps. Presentations by group members and guest speakers provide inspiration and suggestions of different approaches and resources. Stories are also shared each month on topics designed to encourage deeper reflection on our research.

Family Research – Beginners

Bev Lee 0478 607 838

Judy Barry 0414 319 935

1st & 2nd Thursday 1:00 pm to 4:00 pm or by appointment
U3A Room 2

One-to-one mentoring and small group workshops for members who aren't familiar or confident with online genealogy programs such as ancestry.com. Complete beginners to family research meet 'one to one' with a mentor to set up a family tree online. Members who have already worked on their family tree but are keen to develop skills with online genealogy programs meet as a small group in Classroom 2 twice a month, the first session for guest speakers, monthly themes, information about programs/apps and other resources and more. The second small group session each month is a 'hands on' session in which participants work 'hands on' with the support of mentors to develop their family tree online.

Film Discussion Group

Joy Shirley 0417 065 351

2nd Wednesday 2:00 pm to 3:30 pm
Benalla Library

Do you enjoy watching films? Do you find discussing films adds to your enjoyment? Do you find you have a better understanding of a film by hearing and sharing thoughts about the film? At our Film Discussion Group classes we discuss a film we have watched during the month.

In 2023:

- We will select a film screening at BPACC.
- Participants will attend the film at a time that works with their individual commitments.
- We will meet in the library on the 2nd Wednesday at 2:00pm to discuss the film.

If a participant cannot attend a specific film, they can come along to learn about the film, or add to the discussion by talking about another film they have seen.

BPACC sell books of ten tickets for $100 (meaning the films cost only $10.00 each) or I will have individual tickets available for $10.00 from a book pre-purchased.

Garden Appreciation

Gwen Turner 03 5762 7017

4th Thursday - All Day
Meet at Seniors Carpark

We meet once a month to visit gardens in our area and sometimes further afield. Gardens range from private gardens to Botanic Gardens such as Melbourne and Albury. We have also visited Ripponlea the Victorian Rose Garden at Werribee Park and other special gardens.

Garden Team

Elspeth Maconachie 0418 621 764

2nd & 5th Monday 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm
Various venues

A band of enthusiastic gardeners gathers once a month for an afternoon at each member's garden in rotation. The working bee uses each member's skills and abilities to achieve about six hours effect in an hour and a half. Then we rest on our laurels with tea provided by the host and a home-baked and/or healthy plate from the visitors. We head home a little fitter and inspired often with a new cutting or garden tip.

Members are encouraged to present items of interest at the monthly meeting via printed or on the overhead projector. There is no investment advice given by the Convenors or any participating member.

Jane Austen Book Club

Meg Dillon 03 5762 6558

2nd Tuesday 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm
U3A Room 1

Can you ever get too much Jane Austen? Books, TVseries, films?

In this semester we will read Austen's 6 novels and have time for some films. Teenagers running off with soldiers, your best friend marrying a dud, your mother impossible and haughty rich men ridiculing you! Really!!! Come and discover why Regency England was very similar to today. Meets in U3A main room, unlimited numbers.

Let's Talk Books

Geraldine McCorkell 0408 522 662

1st Monday 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm
Seniors Auditorium

Have you read a good book you would like to share with others? Bring your book along and tell the group about it. This is a casual discussion group about books/papers/magazines we have read and enjoyed. You will hear about books others have read that you may also be interested in reading.

Lifeball

Marlene Pitts 0428 210 944

Julie McNeill 0407 823 031

Mondays 10:00 am to 11:30 am
WHEN HALL BECOMES AVAILABLE
Indoor Recreation Centre
WHEN HALL IS AVAILABLE

Missing team sports? Looking for a different way to keep fit? Lifeball might be what you're looking for. It's a game adapted from basketball which suits all ages and abilities, and is great for balance and coordination - no experience necessary! We're a competitive group who get plenty of laughs from playing, and always finish up with a cuppa and a discussion of the finer points of the game. New players are always welcome to drop in and see us in action.

Meet and Mingle

Margaret Jenkins 03 5762 6944

3rd Wednesday 10:00 am to 12:00 noon
U3A Room 1

This is a general social gathering of members to have morning tea, a chat, and listen to a guest speaker. It is not a formal business meeting, but a short time will be allocated for news from the Executive and program groups. All members are welcome.

Music Appreciation

Bill Squire 03 5762 6334

2nd & 4th Friday 10:00 am to 12:00 noon
U3A Room 1

Learning about and listening to classical music from across the ages to the present day is what we do. Our twice monthly sessions feature at least one major composition and a couple of shorter works. They are presented in video format by world class artists performing in the great concert halls of the world so that you can see and hear the music in performance. Full notes relating to each music work, the composers and the artists are provided to assist your listening and learning experience. If you would like to know more about and enjoy the music that has helped shape our world, we would welcome you joining us on the 2nd and 4th Fridays each month February to November – 10am to 12noon.

Page Turners Book Group

Meg Dillon 03 5762 6558

1st Tuesday 10:00 am to 12:00 noon
Meg Dillon's Home

The group reads a selection of 11 contemporary novels. These include some recent prize winning novels and possibly some crime fiction and stories from Australia, America or England. It's a wide selection chosen by the 2022 Page Turners Group for 2023. The list can be obtained from meg.benalla@gmail.com or at the Enrollment Day in January.

You will need to obtain your own copy of the books either by ebooks, purchasing a hard copy, borrowbox or library copies if the titles are available. The group is limited to 10 -12 members due to constraints on where we meet.

Patchwork and Craft

Dorothy Webber 0412 263 071

1st & 3rd Thursday 1:00 pm to 4:00 pm, 5th Thurs All Day
U3A Room 1

The Patchwork and Craft group meets fortnightly from 1 to 4 pm and on occasions conducts day long workshops. It is a group for members with skills in patchworking and quilting who enjoy the support, encouragement and company of others as they complete existing projects and take on new challenges. It is not a beginners' group. Members also bring along needlework, knitting and crocheting projects.

Photography

Rene Martens 0414 779 458

4th Thursday 10:00 am to 12:00 noon
U3A Room 1

Are you interested in taking more interesting photographs? Do you have a device – mobile phone, tablet – or a reasonably simple camera, SLR which you would like to learn to apply new skills on? This course focuses mostly on the former, but hopefully will also help in developing confidence in using your camera – whether phone or other – to take creatively composed photographs.

Play Reading

Joy Shirley 0417 065 351

1st Wednesday 9:30 am to 12:00 noon
U3A Room 1

Have you always enjoyed drama and going to the theatre? Perhaps you have had previous experience in a theatre environment or always wanted to. During monthly sessions, the group will read chosen plays and share news of theatre experiences in a relaxed classroom setting. You don't have to learn lines! Depending on interest we may also carpool at times to see local theatre performances.

Running of the class is a team effort, with different members taking responsibility for different aspects. There will be a small contribution required to cover the cost of accessing scripts.

Politics and Current Affairs

Terry Case 0427 621 700

Brian Harker 0478 606 398

2nd & 4th Tuesday 10:00 am to 12:00 noon

Join our discussions as we dissect local, state, federal and world affairs.

Recorder Group

Janet Douglas 03 5767 2257

0427 080 351

2nd & 4th Wednesday 10:00 am to 12:00 noon
U3A Room 1

"I wish I hadn't given up learning music, the violin, piano, recorder, guitar!" Music teacher Janet Douglas says she would be very wealthy if she received $1 every time she heard an older person say this! Janet believes it's never too late to learn music or to learn a musical instrument and considers the recorder a good choice as it is such an accessible instrument. A group for beginners to intermediate. There will also be scope for more proficient users of the recorder to play together and mentor others. Unlike most U3A courses, there will be homework. You will need to practise - there's no other way to learn and improve!

Singing for Fun

Margaret Jenkins 03 5762 6944

1st, 2nd & 3rd Thursday 10:00 am to 12:00 noon
Cooinda Hub

The only criterion for joining this group is that you like singing. You do not need to be able to read music. We sing for fun, and we find it a great sharing experience.

Sky's the Limit

Claire Rudolph 0428 151 750

David Palmer 0408 470 468

1st Tuesday 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm
U3A Room 1

For those with an interest in gliding, flying, the history of aviation, with past lives involving aircraft in some way. Sessions will include guest speakers with backgrounds in aviation and stories to tell, the occasional excursion and more....

Stock and Land

David Palmer 03 5762 4468

0408 470 468

1st Tuesday 10:00 am to 12:00 noon
U3A Room 1

Are you a regular watcher of Landline, a reader of Country News, Stock and Land or The Weekly Times? Did you grow up on a farm, are you still on a farm, are you engaged in an agribusiness, or did you down shift into Benalla? Perhaps you studied/taught food and agriculture related courses or worked in an area related to agriculture? Or perhaps like most of us you are interested in where food comes from. This group aims to provide a regular forum for members with interests and experience in agriculture, to discuss agricultural issues and current developments. Monthly two-hour sessions, on the first Tuesday of each month, feature well informed speakers from particular areas of farming, who share their story, their understanding of current issues and developments in their field. This is followed by questions and discussions. When time permits, the group also discusses current farming news and shares farming stories.

Sustainability

John Lane 0474 936 460

1st & 3rd Friday 10:00 am to 12:00 noon
U3A Room 1

True sustainability is only achieved when our society achieves this in each of the three spheres of our activity; Social, economic and environmental. Sustainability in each of these three spheres is far from being achieved. This has become the concern of governments and ordinary people world-wide and has resulted in many questions about the sustainability of our present lifestyle. This course aims to explore topics such as global warming and climate change, reducing greenhouse gas emissions, clean energy options, the challenge of population growth, sustainable agricultural practices, water use, sustainable use of resources, sustainable and energy efficient building design, improving the social condition of people and various economic issues. Our sessions during the year will examine different aspects of these major topics with a focus on looking towards a sustainable future. No prior knowledge of these topics is required just a general interest in the issues around sustainability. With discussion of these topics throughout the year you will find that you become better informed about these issues.

2nd Tuesday 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm
U3A Room 2

Are you reasonably Tech Savvy; interested in technological developments and keen to continue developing your knowledge base? Then the Tech Talks group may be of interest. Monthly sessions include viewing of topical TED Talks; presentations on topics of interest by class members or guest speakers; shared news of developments across a range of technologies. Topics discussed include developments in science as well as technology.

We hope to attract more interest by having guest speakers. Please note that wide discussion of topics is encouraged.

Ukes4Fun

Heather Wallace 0418 353 244

Dorothy Webber 0412 263 071

Mondays 12:45 pm to 1:45 pm
Seniors Auditorium

Have you always wanted to play a musical instrument? Perhaps you have played a ukulele, guitar or banjo in the past and have always wanted to get back to playing music? The ukulele is simple to learn and lots of fun as an activity with others.

Using 'Uke3A Introduction to learning the ukulele' as a guide you will learn how to hold, tune and play simple chords on your ukulele, with a variety of strumming patterns. You will get lots of support and will have fun learning together. Before you know it, you'll be accompanying songs. You will need a ukulele of reasonable quality, a music stand, and a tuner.

Wildflowers of the North East

Julie McNeill 0407 823 031

SEMESTER 2

Classroom July/August, then walks and excursion in Sept/Oct/Nov

Benalla is surrounded by areas of notable wildflower interest in the Reef Hills and surrounding Warby Ranges. While some of us are experts, many find they are reaching for phone apps or handbooks to identify what is around us. Join us to find the answers! Of interest to bushwalkers, amblers, photographers, and gardeners, we will explore a variety of content in second semester to fully appreciate the spring wildflower season.

Two classroom sessions focusing on identifying, drawing and photography will be followed by a couple of slow walks on local tracks, and a final visit to the Shepparton Botanic Gardens and Billabong Nursery/Cafe.

Wine Appreciation

Nicole McFarlane 0428 696 408

3rd Friday 10:00 am to 4:00 pm
Meet at Barkly Street Carpark behind Aldi

This group meets monthly for a trip to explore the wineries of the Northeast and learn more about the varieties of wines and the people who make them. We meet once a month on the third Friday gathering at Benalla College's Barkly St. car park on the tennis court behind Aldi for car-pooling. Lunch is part of the excursion at a suitable venue.

Wise Guys Book Group

David Palmer 0408 470 468

4th Wednesday 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm
U3A Room 1

The Wise Guys Book Group will cater for predominantly men's interests, with book titles drawn largely from non-fiction genres including 'Biography/Memoir', 'Exploration', 'Warfare', 'Spycraft' 'Mystery', 'Crime', 'Adventure', 'Politics', 'Farming', and more. Titles might include Burke and Wills by Peter Fitzsimmons; a Vietnam memoir, Tunnel Rats by Jimmy Thomson; Light and Shadow: Memoirs of a Spy's Son, the biography of journalist Mark Colvin; as well as books suggested by group members as the course progresses.
